Accessing the CoC Program Project Application in eSnaps

The screenshot shows the HUD Exchange website interface. A red arrow points to the browser address bar containing the URL `hudexchange.info/programs/e-snaps/`. The website header includes the HUD Exchange logo and navigation menus for Programs, Resources, Trainings, Program Support, Grantees, and News. The main content area is titled "Homelessness Assistance" and features a banner with three images: a modern apartment building, a woman with two children, and a man working on a laptop. Below the banner, the text describes the e-snaps system as the electronic Continuum of Care (CoC) Program Application and Grants Management System. A red arrow points to a "Log in to e-snaps" button, which is circled in blue. Below the banner, there are two buttons: "Get Help with e-snaps" and "Log in to e-snaps". At the bottom, a breadcrumb trail reads "Home > Programs > e-snaps" and a row of four images illustrates the application process, including a laptop, a hand writing, a binder labeled "Applications" and "Grants", and hands pointing at a document.
